"The CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE BULLETIN is produced by the Director of Central Intelligence to meet his responsibilities for providing current intelligence bearing on issues of national security to the President, the National Security Council, and other senior government officials. It is produced in consultation with the Departments of State and Defense. When, because of the time factor, adequate consultation with the department of primary concern is not feasible, items or portions thereof are produced by CIA and marked with an asterisk."

Interpretations of intelligence information in this publication represent immediate and preliminary views which are subject to modification in the light of further information and more complete analysis.

Certain intelligence items in this publication may be designated specifically for no further dissemination. Other intelligence items may be disseminated further, but only on a need-to-know basis.

WARNING

This document contains classified information affecting the national security of the United States within the meaning of the espionage laws, US Code Title 18, Sections 793, 794, and 798. The law prohibits its transmission or the revelation of its contents in any manner to any unauthorized persons, as well as its use in any manner prejudicial to the safety or interest of the United States or for the benefit of any foreign government to the detriment of the United States.

NOTES

*Haiti: Exiles who landed at Saltrou in southeastern Haiti on 29 June are apparently located in the mountainous region near Mare Rouge, some 10 miles north of their landing point. The government has sent troops to the area, and has also mounted patrols from Anse a Pitre to Cotes de Fer, west of Jacmel, to repel a landing rumored to be scheduled for this morning. The government has meanwhile informed the UN Security Council of the incursion and the role which the Dominican Republic has allegedly played in it. (b)(3) (Map)
